Dear Students,

We're excited to go on a three-day intensive where you'll be learning about living in transitional times. This promises to be an inspiring experience filled with creativity, learning, and connection. Below are the details to help you prepare:

Accommodation details

We'll be staying at Marenland in Winsum, a village north of Groningen.

There we have a conference room and we've rented 4 cabins. You'll be staying with 3 or 4 persons in a cabins in bunkbeds:

Adress:

Marenland Winsum Winsumerdiep 6, 9951 CG Winsum (Gr)

Packing essentials

To make the most of this trip, please bring the following:

- Walking essentials: Comfortable walking shoes and a rain jacket or umbrella, for less-than-ideal weather.
- Warm clothing: Pack a coat, sweaters and socks to stay cozy.
- Indoor footwear: a pair of slippers or thick woollen socks for when you take off your muddy shoes at the locations.

Eating

- Please bring diner for the first evening:
The first evening we'll dine together with what each one of us brings to the table. This can be something from your culture, a recipe that means something to you or a dish/bite you just love to eat all the time. You don't have to bring a lot because we all bring something.

- Diner the second evening: We'll dine at Marenland free of charge for you. There's a restaurant on site that serves good food.

- Breakfast & Lunch Friday and Saturday:
Joost and I will make sure groceries have been bought. (So arrange your own lunch on Thursday)

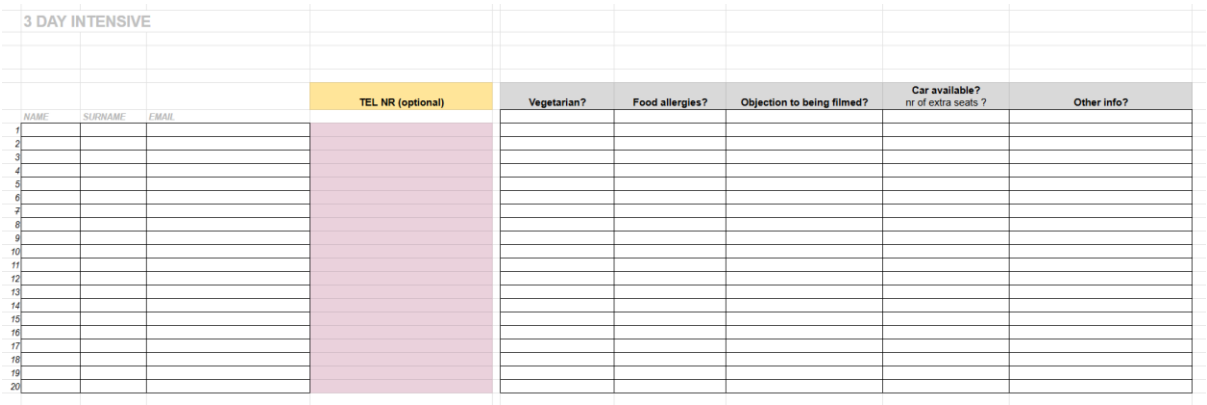

Check-in, check-out

- Check-in: Thursday, Octobre 9th, from 13:00 hr onward.

- Check-out: Saturday, Octobre 11th, 14:00 hr
Rooms should be cleared around 10:00.
